SAYS "DARK LANTERN DIPLOMACY" PREVALENT

SEN. HARRISON IN ATTACK ON PRES. COOLIDGE

LEAGUE OF NATIONS DISARMAMENT AND WORLD COURT INVITATIONS CONSIDERED

SEN. BORAH SAYS DAY OF "SECRET AGREEMENTS" HAS RETURNED

Washington, March 22.—(UP)—President Coolidge has gone back to the old European methods of "dark lantern diplomacy" in connection with the League of Nations disarmament and world court invitations, Senator Pat Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, told the senate today.

Senator Harrison charged that Ambassador A. B. Houghton of London, last week had given to newspapermen here a gloomy picture of League affairs without assuming responsibility himself or committing the administration to his views.

"Here we have careful Cal (Mr. Coolidge), nervous Nellie (Secretary Kellogg) and gloomy Gus (Houghton) starting this subtle propaganda behind half closed doors for the purpose of stirring up strife in Europe," Harrison said.

Chairman Borah of the senate foreign relations committee, joined the debate, declaring indisputable evidence was contained in the League meeting collapse at Geneva that European statesmen were returning to the practice of secret agreements and the old balance of power.

"There can be no disarmament in Europe as long as these practices continue," Borah said.

"But what right has our ambassador to come over here and attempt to disrupt things?" Senator Glass, Virginia, democrat, asked.

"We can contribute to peace by concealing the facts," Borah answered. "I suspect Mr. Houghton told the facts as he understood them and if he erred it was an error of judgment."

Borah said he had talked with Houghton and the facts carried in the newspapers did not differ materially from those he received from the ambassador.

"But what right has he or we, for that matter, to stir up friction in Europe?" Swanson, democrat, Virginia, and author of the world court resolution, asked.

"We have no right to conceal the facts," Borah replied.

"If the president is getting ready to beat a retreat on the world court, let him come out through his spokesman and assume the authority for his words," Senator Harrison said.

"It is not a retreat on the world court, then is it a retreat on the League proposal to invite this nation to an arms reduction conference?"

"I demand that if Ambassador Houghton failed to express the same views as the administration he be recalled to show all the world how the administration stands."

Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire, irreconcilable, declared he believed that "what Ambassador Houghton said is the truth of the situation in Europe."

Senator Fess, administration republican, Ohio, protested that there had been a change in Europe since the collapse of the League of Nations meeting last week.

"We are entitled to know whether the peaceful atmosphere of Locarno is a myth and a mystical phrase," Senator Hiram Johnson, republican, California, irreconcilable, said.

NO EVIDENCE THAT MURDER OF DEPUTY WAS PREMEDITATED

Chieta, Italy, March 22.—(UP)—Indications that Amerigo Dumini and four other fascists, charged with the murder of the socialist deputy, Giacomo Matteotti, would not receive maximum penalties for the crime appeared today when the state prosecutor, Salucci, began summing up the evidence against the prisoners.

Salucci admitted there was no evidence to show the murder had been premeditated.

PREMIER BRIAND'S CABINET APPROVES FINANCIAL PROGRAM

Paris, March 22.—(UP)—Premier Briand's cabinet today approved the financial program of Finance Minister Peret upon which it will risk its tenure of office in the chamber of deputies.

The most important details of the program are:

Increase of the tax on business turnover from 1.50 to 2 per cent. A varying poll tax from 40 to 1,000 francs (approximately $1 to $200).

Increased taxes on tobacco, posts, telegraphs and telephones. The alcohol tax, which had previously been rejected by the chamber finance committee.

NEWSPAPER POLLS STILL DISCUSSED

DRY LEADERS PROTEST THAT THEY ARE BUT A SMALL PART OF DRY VOTE

WET LEADERS JUBILANT OVER THEIR 5 TO 1 "VICTORY"

New York, March 22.—(UP)—Although the majority of the newspaper polls on prohibition have ended, the discussion they have engendered continues in full bloom.

Dry leaders protest that the polls represented only a slight percentage of the actual prohibition vote, while wet leaders, jubilant over the 5 to 1 "victory" they achieved in the unofficial referendum, predict eventual modification or repeal of the prohibition laws.

Pulpits in many cities Sunday were given over to the controversy. Probably few post prohibition utterances in favor of the dry laws have been made with such fiery enthusiasm as that of the Rev. Dr. Lee W. Beattie, Baptist, speaking to a Harlem church on his duties as head of a settlement house.

Dr. Beattie said that prohibition had brought undreamed happiness to the slums of this and other cities. Nowadays, he said, there had been months when the settlement did not need to spend $5 a month for relief, whereas $300 was common in the saloon days. He added that a fresh air farm, once crowded throughout the summer, was sold because there was no longer any need for it during the hot months.

Quite the opposite stand was taken by Rev. Dr. James Empringham, national secretary of the Church Temperance Society of the Protestant Episcopal church.

"Prohibition is a complete and absolute failure," he said in the pulpit of the St. Luke's Episcopal church.

In such cities as New York, Atlanta and Chicago, Dr. Empringham said, he could point out where 16 "speakeasies" existed now as compared with three licensed saloons in the old days.

Washington, March 22.—(UP)—Attorney General Sargent announced today that the government would appeal to the supreme court the "Osage Indian charges."

The decision to appeal the case followed dismissal in United States district court at Oklahoma City of the government's charges against two men of murdering Osage Indians.

2 ICEMEN KILLED, IN CONTACT WITH HIGH VOLTAGE WIRES

St. Paul, March 22.—(UP)—William Phillips and Simon Simpson, icemen, were instantly killed today when they came in contact with high voltage electric wires.

The two men were on their morning rounds when one stepped on a radio aerial which had broken off the mast and crossed a 15,000 volt wire. He apparently called for help and his companion in attempting the rescue also was electrocuted.

The bodies were found an hour later horribly burned.

MEN AND GUNS CONCENTRATED IN TIEN TSIN

NATIONALIST ARMY COMMANDERS ARE RALLYING FORCES

EXPECT FURTHER HOSTILITIES WITH COALITION ARMIES

Peking, March 22.—(UP)—Thousands of men and guns were being concentrated in Tien Tsin today by the nationalist army commanders, in preparation for further hostilities with the coalition forces of Marshal Chang Tso Lin, Wu Pei Fu and Li Ching Lin.

The train scheduled to arrive here today from Tien Tsin never left the city because the line and available equipment were monopolized by troop trains. The troops are pouring into Tien Tsin from both the northern and southern fronts.

Yank Tsun probably will be the first major defensive point of the nationalists if Tien Tsin is abandoned.

The Kuomintchen or nationalist troops, usually commanded by Marshal Feng Yu Hsiang, control the Peking area, which the coalition of northern and southern militarists seek to gain. Feng last week was reported to have departed for Moscow, via Mongolia, leaving the direction of his armies to subordinates. It was a nationalist effort to close the Pei river to coalition vessels that resulted in the international incident of week before last when the powers delivered an ultimatum to the nationalist commander of Taku forts demanding that the river be opened to navigation. The importance of the Pei river lies in the fact that it connects Tien Tsin with the sea, and Peking's only connection with the outside world now is the railroad line between Peking and Tien Tsin.

MILL CITY STREET BATTLE GROUND, GUNMAN SLAYS

KILLED ONE, WOUNDED ANOTHER AND SENT PEDESTRIANS FLYING

THOMAS CHAKOLAS, 38, SHOT AND KILLED DANIEL ARVANETES, 35

Minneapolis, March 22.—(UP)—The streets of Minneapolis were made a battle ground last night when a gunman killed one, wounded another and sent pedestrians into a panic stricken flight for shelter.

Thomas Chakolas, 38, the assailant, shot Daniel Arvanetes, 35, below the heart, then pursued him up the street and fired as they ran. Arvanetes fell mortally wounded after running a block and detectives captured Chakolas just as he was about to fire a fourth shot at his victim.

Arvanetes died an hour and a half later.

W. J. Frawley, St. Paul, suffered a gunshot wound in the hand, when struck by a stray bullet.

Chakolas and Arvanetes met at a corner and Chakolas, enraged over a fancied former injury, drew a gun and fired. Pedestrians rushed into doorways and behind parked automobiles to escape the bullets. Arvanetes then fled up street with Chakolas in pursuit. Two shots were fired in rapid succession. One went wild and the other struck Frawley.

Two detectives on the opposite side of the street saw the attack and gave chase. They captured the gunman in time to prevent further injury.

Before death Arvanetes identified Chakolas as his assailant.

MARKET FOR DISPOSING OF UNWANTED BABIES

IS BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF FOUR LITTLE ONES

BODIES FOUND IN SUITCASE AND HANDBAG IN ABANDONED HOUSE

Martinsburg, W. Va., March 22.—(UP)—A market which contracted for the disposition of unwanted babies, was believed responsible today for the death of four babies whose bodies were found in a suitcase and a handbag in an abandoned house at Cherry Run, 14 miles west of here.

The gruesome contents of the two bags were discovered by a garbage hauler, who went to the house to clear refuse from the attic. The man loaded the grips into his wagon and hauled them to the city dump near the river. As he unloaded the wagon, the suitcase fell to the ground and burst open, revealing the skeletons of three infants.

The second bag dropped into the river and floated down stream. It was recovered and contained the body of a six months old baby.

Minneapolis—I. R. Snuda, Little Falls, was robbed of $4 and provisions he was taking home after a marketing expedition. He reported the theft to police who provided him with food and shelter.

LIEF ERICKSON DESCENDANTS PETITION CONGRESS

WANT FAMOUS VIKING EXPLORER RECOGNIZED AS DISCOVERER OF AMERICA

SCANDINAVIAN FRATERNITY OF AMERICA OF ELY WANTS NATIONAL MEMORIAL

By WILLIAM J. McEVROY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 22.—Descendants of Lief Erickson, famous Viking explorer, want congress officially to recognize him as the discoverer of America.

The Scandinavian Fraternity of America, of Ely, Minn., in a petition to the house today urged that a national memorial be erected to Erickson in recognition of his discovery of the North American continent.

"The object of this memorial," the petition said, "is that congress shall be requested to take such action as shall give the fact of Lief Erickson's discovery, appropriate governmental recognition. We respectfully petition the honorable congress to grant our most illustrious progenitor the recognition we believe is due him."

The entire membership of the fraternity is descended from the Viking race and is unanimous in the belief that congress should honor Erickson.

"It is not meant by this memorial," the petition said, "to endeavor to disparage achievements of the intrepid navigator, Christopher Columbus, who, while he did not set foot upon the North American continent, nevertheless unfolded the chart of the western world, under conditions, whereby his followers were enabled to explore and later establish a permanent footing upon what is known as the United States of America."

Chicago, March 22.—(UP)—Police answering an anonymous call today went to the home of Anthony McCune and found McCune and his two sons dead from asphyxiation, his wife, Alice, and a 12 year old daughter in a serious condition from fumes.

It was believed by police that a water heater that had been left on during the night, had burned up the oxygen in the air of the closed apartment and had formed carbon monoxide, which caused the deaths.

McCune is a janitor in the building and police were called when another janitor noticed that McCune had not made his morning rounds.

LAWYERS FOR MAGNUS JOHNSON SEEK DELAY

CLAIM FOUL PLAY CONNECTED WITH ONE OF THEIR WITNESSES

ASSERT GALE PLAGMAN WAS ABDUCTED, DRUGGED, IM- PRISONED

Minneapolis, March 22.—(UP)—Attorneys for Magnus Johnson in his senate contest against Senator Thomas D. Schall, late yesterday telegraphed Senator Charles Deneen, chairman of the senate sub-committee, that the decision in the case be delayed because of foul play connected with Gale Plagman, a Johnson witness, who was said to have been abducted, drugged and held prisoner.

Attorney Donald Hughes made a verbal statement that five men had taken Plagman to a hotel here, where he was kept under the influence of liquor or drugs until it was too late for him to appear as a witness in Washington.

Plagman was said to have repudiated his affidavits of the case while in an irresponsible condition.

In the telegram to Deneen Hughes said:

"Gale Plagman in jail here. Tells me he has no recollection of any affidavit repudiating telegram and statement. Claims certain parties got him drunk, kidnapped him and prevented his appearance before your sub-committee. Names of parties furnished by mail if desired. Also further details. On my word as an attorney, foul play has been employed to prevent his appearance before your sub-committee. I hope that your committee will not ignore this outrage against the senate and society. Advise withhold report until after investigation this Plagman matter."

Hughes said he would request the committee to make an investigation of the Plagman affair before making its decision.

PLAGMAN PAYS HIS WIFE $35

Minneapolis, March 22.—Gale Plagman, accuser of Senator Thomas D. Schall in the election contest brought by Magnus Johnson, was released this afternoon when he paid $35 on account due his wife and three children following his arrest on a charge of non-support.

Plagman previously charged Schall with receiving campaign contributions from indicted bootleggers to defeat Johnson for the senate.

His statement was presented to the senate sub-committee investigating Johnson's charges of irregularity in the election of Schall but Plagman never appeared to testify.

Later Plagman's statement was repudiated. Now attorneys for Johnson charge that Plagman was given liquor or drugs by persons who secured the repudiation which was signed by him while in semi-conscious condition. The senate committee investigating the case has been asked to postpone its decision.

REV. ESSINGHAM'S RADIO TALK WAS A VERY MILD ONE

Darlington, Wis., March 22.—(UP)—The world is none the wiser today concerning the "Sins of Darlington women," which, it previously had been reported was to be the subject of Rev. Wallace Essingham's radio sermon over station WOC, Davenport, Ia., Sunday night.

Reports that Rev. Essingham was going to lay bare the sins of the women of the Congregational church here, because they had produced an "immoral play" had set this town by its ears at radio receivers and extensive arrangements had been made to take shorthand notes on the sermon, with the intention of replying to whatever charges of sin, Rev. Essingham made.

In line with his denial that he had ever been ousted from the Darlington Congregational church, as a result of his protest on the presentation of the play, "Leave It to Dad," and that so far he knew, Darlington sins are no greater than those of other small towns, Rev. Essingham adhered religiously to his assigned subject, "a modern version of an old story."

By FREDERICK KUH
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, March 22.—German nationalists today demanded in the Reichstag that Germany withdraw her application for membership in the League of Nations.

Count Westphal, a nationalist leader, replied to Foreign Minister Stresemann's explanation of Germany's failure to gain admission into the League last week in a speech, which declared the nationalists' lack of confidence in the cabinet as well as in the League.

Westphal said Germany could not be a member of the League on an equal footing with other members until universal disarmament had been achieved.

No Credit Coming to Him

unconsciously earned a tribute for self-the window dresser. The latter reported: "How in the blankety-blank

Northern Pacific's New Observation Cars Said To Be Finest Ever Built

Women's Shower Bath Women's Lounge Two Smoking and Card Rooms Men's Shower Bath Barber Shop Buffet Club Lounge and Observation Room Observation Platform

The cars are of steel. The interior is French walnut and in decorative plan and upholstery decided departures conducive to the most restful and enjoyable journeys have been made.

Built at the Pullman shops after plans originated in the Northern Pacific mechanical department, the uality throughout. One can ride in them untiringly.

Among other travel comfort features are provided:— Women's

You have heard how an airplane may crumple up in the air and dash itself to pieces in the field below because a single wire or bolt or rivet was not quite strong enough to hold against the force of the air. An airplane is no stronger than its weakest part and the weakest part may be something so small you would hardly notice it.

It is just this way with our Government. It is made up of a vast number of parts and they must each be true and sturdy and strong or the whole Government is in danger. We are these parts and each of us must do his duty. The president of the United States, the governor of Minnesota and the policeman on the corner do their duty by enforcing the laws which are made for our protection. The members of the congress of the United States and the state legislature do their duty by making good laws. Plain citizens do their duty by electing good men to be president, governor and law-makers. If citizens fail to do their duty by voting, they cannot expect to have good laws and to have them well enforced. One part of the machinery, made up of many very small parts has broken, and the machine is worthless.

TWO FISTED NOCTURNAL COURTING OF GIRL

AFFAIRS OF MUSCULAR INEZ
OSBORNE WRITTEN LARGE
ON POLICE REPORT

CLUBS WOMAN WHOSE HUSBAND
SHE WISHES TO MARRY

Chicago, March 22.—(UP)—The tale of the two fistfisted nocturnal courting of pretty, but muscular, Inez Osborne today is written large on a police report.

Mrs. Beatrice Kane, wife of John Kane, an official of the American Can Company, was awakened in the middle of the night by a healthy blow on the jaw.

Believing she had administered the blow herself, she turned back to sleep when there was a second Dempsey-like smash on her chin.

Mrs. Kane flashed the light and started looking for her midnight adversary. She found it in the person of a very comely woman, who stood over the bed holding a golf club in one hand and a revolver in the other. There was a brief formality.

"Mrs. Kane, I am Inez Osborne," the clubbed and revolvered woman said. "I love your husband. You are going to divorce him so that I can marry him."

Now Mrs. Kane was perfectly satisfied with her husband and had no intention of a divorce but the upraised brassie and the leveled revolver were ominous. So she agreed to the weird proposition and her consent brought the desired result.
Inez disappeared through the door.

Mrs. Kane sought the police and the blue coats found Inez striding militantly down the street.

"I've been sweet on Kane for a long time and I want him," Inez said without embarrassment. "Sure I socked her to make her realize I meant business."

Then for the first time noticing her escort she remarked:
"She said I could have a man and I got one."

Inez pointed to the husky patrolman with her.

TOURIST INTEREST AND WINTER TRAFFIC

TIME was not long ago when the owner of an automobile "put his car up for the winter," or ventured out with it in trepidation in this part of the country, says the Minneapolis Tribune. That habit is fast passing. The closed car and heated car is largely responsible, but an even more important consideration is it that we are not only learning that we should keep our main highways open when there is snow on the ground, but are keeping them open for motor car traffic. We have learned that for the most part the obstacles to winter-time travel were more imaginary than real. Many drivers undertake long itineraries of an interstate scope with about as little concern as if their destination were "down town."

It is from the inquiries at the information bureau, continues the Minneapolis Tribune, that we construct the tourist prospect for the coming summer and fall season. In the data at hand we discover a bright promise for a travel and vacation business in Minnesota in 1926 surpassing that of any previous year. It is stimulating to observe that so many over the country are thinking in these winter months in terms of the northwest as they shape their summer pleasure plans. For this there are two explanations: First, the satisfied customer of the past, second, the systematized publicity that is going on in the advertisement of what Minnesota has to offer the pleasure-seeker. There might be added a third reason, namely, the lengthening of the regular tourist season under the influence of good roads, open roads, and extension of resort facilities to cover longer periods in accommodation.

Here at Brainerd we are fully aware of what the tourist season means to Brainerd. The Chamber of Commerce is preparing a map for free distribution among the tourists and others interested: No favoritism will be shown. An effort will be made to mark down the location of every resort in the Brainerd lake region. To make the map accurate, in this regard, the Chamber has enlisted the cooperation of all the township assessors. The latter will list the resorts in their respective townships. This map will be one of the major undertakings of the Chamber of Commerce this year.

Reports from the lakes indicate many of the resorts planning improvements. The money invested in lands, buildings, boats, docks, equipment and furnishings, automobiles, trucks, etc., runs into the hundreds of thousands dollars. The summer resort business and the tourist business are on firm foundation. But to gain new business and retain much of the old from seeking new fields, constant advertising and other publicity work must be conducted.

HOW TO GROW ALFALFA

CROW WING county farmers know the value of alfalfa. Boys and girls clubs raised alfalfa in districts never before cropped.

Every farmer should raise at least one acre of alfalfa for every cow he keeps or the equivalent for other livestock, is the opinion of L. H. Laylin, of Mason, Mich., whose bale of hay at the 1925 International Hay and Grain Show was declared the champion alfalfa bale by the judges.

Laylin is just a plain farmer and has had his ups and downs in growing alfalfa. "I am not only convinced that alfalfa is the greatest crop given to farmers," said Mr. Laylin, "but feel sure that the farmer growing alfalfa is bound to be better off than the one who doesn't."

"Experience has taught me that the depth of planting is a great factor in getting a good stand with alfalfa. Half to three quarters of an inch is ideal. Alfalfa should be planted only in sweet soil, on well-drained land, and in a seed bed that is firm and well-packed. Where alfalfa has never been grown it is essential that the soil or seed be inoculated.

"This is my method with alfalfa. I first secure good, hard, northern-grown Grimm seed of known origin. Unadapted European seed may look better and even be a little lower in price, but I have found that I can get a thirty per cent better stand with Grimm than on ordinary seed. I like to plant this seed alone in the spring in a well-prepared seed bed. The first year I never attempt to cut for hay. I merely clip in the later summer and allow the hay to lay as much for winter protection. Alfalfa should be cut in medium bloom or when the shoots begin to appear at the crown. The best quality of hay is obtained by allowing the alfalfa to wilt in a swath, then curling it in cocks."

The Lions club, of which County Agent E. G. Roth is an active member, early fostered the extension of alfalfa culture, putting on a prize contest in which 63 boys and girls entered. In the last four years the crop has grown from 40 acres to 4,000 acres cultivated. It has assisted to place dairying in Crow Wing county on a solid foundation.

FILES FOR STATE TREASURER

IN a letter to THE DISPATCH, O. H. Smith, Commissioner of the Division of Immigration and State Development, writes of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for state treasurer at the June 21st primaries.

Mr. Smith has had thirty years' experience as publisher of a Minnesota country newspaper and officially and otherwise has done much to attract immigration to Minnesota and to assist in developing the state.

A NEWSPAPER worthy of the name is a public asset. It chronicles the news of its section and town. It tells more briefly of the doings of the world. It boosts worthy public movements and sometimes worthy private objects. It gives space to club news, to church news, to business news. During a time of public stress, like the late war, it gives without stint of its space to further the objects of the government and promote patriotism.—Benson Monitor.

THE Chicago Post takes a pessimistic view of things. "At one end of a long rope, the other end of which is firmly held by the senate, the United States enters the world court provided with a bottle of disinfectant and a portable fire escape."

WITH four beauty parlors in Park Rapids, says the Enterprise, the men are not approaching the barber shop with quite so great a degree of anxiety as was shown a few months ago.

CREW OF BRITISH STEAMER TAFNA, SAVED BY FIREBOAT AND TENDER AS IT FOUGHT FLAMES IN CHESAPEAKE BAY

Above are shown members of the crew of the British steamer Tafna which caught fire in Chesapeake Bay off Sandy Point. The flames had gained such headway that a tender and a fireboat had to go out under forced draft to give aid. The ship carried sugar from Port Tarasa, Cuba.

Moral Herein Is "Do Your Own Love Making"

It is one of the strange inconsistencies of human nature that, while some men would walk up to the guns of an enemy without a tremor, they find a terrible inclination to turn tail and fly when they are called on to face the battery of a pair of sweet eyes and ask a simple question to which they have reason to expect a gratifying answer.

This is why so many thousands of lovers seek courage in pen and ink and distance, and make the postman the innocent ambassador of their desires; but it is scarcely conceivable that a man who has this resource open to him should choose the alternative of getting a valorous and obliging friend to propose for him.

That there is a decided element of danger in a proposal by proxy was proved by the evidence given in a recent breach of promise case.

The defendant sought to excuse himself by declaring that his proposal was not a serious one. It appeared that an intimate friend was deeply in love with the fair plaintiff, but could not nerve himself to put his fate to the test. The defendant had volunteered, "just as a joke," to take his place and make the best of his client's case. Unhappily he carried the joke too far; for, instead of laying his friend's heart at the lady's feet, he laid his own, and, to his amazement, was accepted.

It proved an expensive jest, however, for it cost him $1,500 to disentangle himself from its consequences; and no doubt if ever again invited to plead a friend's lovesuit, he will be justified in retorting, "Do it yourself."

In another case, where a defendant sought to excuse himself on the ground that a friend had proposed for him without his full consent, the engagement, which had been weakly confirmed by subsequent letters and presents, was pronounced binding; and when a verdict for $1,500 was awarded to the plaintiff, the judge humorously suggested that "as he had wooed by proxy he might see his way to pay by proxy," which, alas! is quite another thing.

Cheaper Fuel From Dust

If you pump cornstarch with air into an inclosed tube and ignite the mixture with an electric spark, it will explode. Recent government experiments have shown in dust great explosive energy going to waste. It is this that is utilized in a new fuel announced recently, says Popular Science Monthly.

Fuel made from dust or scourgings, not only will make use of waste material, but will reduce a big fire hazard in manufacturing plants, explains W. A. Noel, an engineer of the United States bureau of chemistry. It would solve the problem of cheap fuel for factories, he adds, for it may be used in steam or gas engines. Wood, metal, leather, chemicals, cork, rubber, sugar, grain, cocoa and cinnamon are but a few of hundreds of products from which the inflammable dust may be obtained.

No Heat on Mars

Even if we should find a way to get over to Mars, we couldn't go—at least, not until we had rigged up some sort of an electric suit that would take heat with us. For landing on that inhospitable shore, we should freeze more solid than icicles, owing to the extreme severity of the climate.

Dr. W. B. Coblentz of the United States bureau of standards, using extraordinarily delicate instruments of his own invention, has concluded that 100 degrees below zero is just ordinary temperature in our frigid neighbor's clime. Almost every night, in winter, he says, it goes down to 70 degrees Centigrade or 158 degrees Fahrenheit.

Doctor Coblentz made many of his measurements in Arizona last August, when Mars was in an unusually close position to the earth.—Popular Science Monthly.

Gasoline and Potatoes

Since 1913 the price of potatoes has increased enormously, while the price of Standard Oil Company (Indiana) gasoline has increased but slightly. This statement is confirmed by authentic statistics.

The United States Department of Labor gives the average retail price of potatoes in Chicago on November 15, 1913, as $0.17 per pound or $1.02 per bushel.

The tank wagon price of Standard Oil Company (Indiana) gasoline in Chicago on the same day was $1.15 per gallon.

From these figures we find that a bushel of potatoes in 1913 purchased a trifle more than 7 gallons of gasoline.

Twelve years later, on November 15, 1925, the average retail price of potatoes in Chicago was $0.05 per pound, or $3.00 per bushel.

As the Chicago tank wagon price of Standard Oil Company (Indiana) gasoline, on the same day, was $1.16 per gallon, we find that, on that day, one bushel of potatoes purchased 18 1/4 gallons of gasoline, or 1 1/4 gallons more in 1925 than in 1913.

Stating it another way, potatoes advanced in price 194% during the last twelve years, while the price of gasoline advanced only 10.3%.

This record is the more remarkable when it is considered that, in 1913, there were 194 barrels of crude oil produced per registered car, while, in 1925, production had shrunk to only 38 barrels of crude per registered car.

To balance such a spectacular growth of demand against such a startling decrease in supply, without greatly increased cost to consumers, would seem totally impossible and against all economic law.

Yet that is precisely the achievement that stands to the credit of the oil industry and the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in particular.

It was accomplished by doubling the yield of gasoline from crude by means of advanced refining processes, discovered and developed in the research laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

These processes were leased in turn to competitive refineries, that they also might help to make the available crude meet the demand. In this way the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) passed on the benefit of its tremendous investment in research to the entire consuming public in the form of continued low gasoline prices.

The problems of the oil industry are as great today as they have been in the past.

The demand for gasoline continues to increase. The supply of crude per car continues to decrease. What is to be done?

Questions like this the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) must answer. It will be aided in answering them by the experience of years, by friendly cooperation within and without the organization, and by the faith that high ideals backed by earnest effort must win.

300 MILES OF STATE ROADS ARE CLOSED

COVERS THAT DISTANCE ON NO. 1, HARRIS NORTH TO BORDER

A SIMILAR CLOSING ORDER AGAINST HEAVY TRAFFIC ON 62 MILES OTHER ROADS

St. Paul, March 22.—(UP)—Three hundred miles of state trunk highway No. 1 from Harris north to the Canadian border was ordered closed to heavy traffic today by the state highway department.

Similar closing orders were also issued for 62 miles of highway in other parts of the state. Guards were stationed at the closed points to arrest violators.

The measure was taken to prevent damage which the department estimated would run into hundreds of thousands of dollars if heavy traffic was allowed to continue on the soft roads. Present conditions are expected to be overcome by the middle of the week with favorable weather.

Roads closed to vehicles of two tons gross weight or more are:

No. 1—Harris north to the Canadian border, paved stretches excepted.

No. 5—12 miles north from end of pavement into Minneapolis.

No. 10—15 miles from Atwater to Litchfield.

BACHELOR HELD FOR QUESTIONING

BODY OF WISCONSIN MAN FOUND
HACKED TO PIECES
WITH AXE

Crandon, Wis., March 22.—(UP)—Robert Leising, 50, bachelor, is held in the county jail here for questioning in connection with the slaying of Adolph Dorn, 23.

Dorn's body, hacked to pieces with a double bitted axe, was found by William Gore, who stopped at the Dorn cabin, near here yesterday. Beside the body sat Leising, Gore said.

According to Gore, Leising invited him into the cabin and proposed that they burn the body. Gore, however, said he went to a nearby home and called the sheriff. Gore is being held as a witness.

According to authorities Leising is alleged to have been in an intoxicated condition and could not give a coherent account of what had happened.

Vanities Are Dainty; Shopping Bags Large

The latest vanities are dainty trifles. One is a rose, made of ribbon or strips of silk, which is attached to a wristband of silk elastic. The band is covered with fancy ribbon in a flowered pattern or metal brocade, and the flowers, a clever reproduction, conceal a little powder puff, rouge and lip stick. Another ultra-modern invention is a silk-covered disk on which is painted a face to match the dolls seen on the toilet articles and accessories of dress. Shopping bags are of many designs, but all are large. The most swaggy of all is a knapsack shape of generous size. The most popular resembles a traveling bag, with a snap clasp at the top and with handles of leather. It is long, rather narrow, and commodious. Seal, morocco, alligator, lizard, snakeskin and other novelty leathers and clever imitations are the materials used.

Sleeves Are Plaited From Elbow to Wrist

The graceful swing of the skirts is being copied extensively in the designs of the sleeves of present-day gowns. Frequently the sleeves, which are extremely tight from shoulder to elbow, are duplicates of the skirts from the elbow down. As a result plaits, so omnipresent on skirts, are becoming a feature on sleeves. Even velvet sleeves are so treated. One new cloak, for example, is of ruby velvet with the sleeves plaited from elbow to wrist and trimmed with black fox.

Pins for Millinery

Among the little brilliant pins designed for millinery and brooch purposes are tiny animals and birds of brilliant mounted on pins which screw together. Two wee elephants that can be worn as a scarf pin or hat ornament, for instance, are among them.

New Arctics

An innovation which will be welcomed by the woman who hates the utilitarian appearance of black arctics are gossamer of almond green or tan trimmed with black.

One of the Two Seats

By DOROTHY DOUGLAS

(Copyright.)

"MOTHER, I think it's too disgusting the way these people flock to the tennis tournaments. I have tried all over London and can't get a single seat for the finals, and it's one of the reasons I chose to come here for my holidays—I did so want to see Lenglen and Miss McKane and Miss Ryan and all the bunch of champions at Wimbledon."

"There, there, dearie," consoled her mother, "I have tried to get a word in edgewise and tell you that I have just found in the Personal column—I always read the personals, they are so amusing—one which offers two seats for sale for the games."

"Oh, mother, shall I dash straight off to get them? You will come, too, won't you?"

"Now, Molly, you know I would pass right on if I had to sit through a tennis match in a crowd of several thousands."

So Molly rushed off to the first taxi she saw and on to the address of a flat in Upper Brook street in quest of the ticket.

Arriving there and being admitted she found that the young man who had got there one minute before her had the tickets in his hand and was even then producing the necessary two pounds.

"Oh," wailed Molly, looking straight into the young man's blue eyes. "I've come all the way from America to see one of these great games and now I can't get a single seat."

"I say, that's rotten luck. Here, you have one of these. One is all I want." He told the yarn easily.

She drew a pound from her neat bag and took the ticket with a smile that sank to the very depths of the young man's heart. Also with American frankness she held out a slim hand and colored slightly at the warm pressure it received as she tried to thank him. Molly felt she could hardly wait until the day she dressed her prettiest to go to Wimbledon.

Her heart sank down into her very dainty boots when, upon finally reaching her seat in the center court, she found that what she had been hoping was not to be. There was no nice young man with blue eyes beside her, but a young lady whose attitude as Molly sat down was not in the least cordial.

Molly realized that this was the other of the two seats, for on her left side was a large party of some eight or ten, so the aristocratic young lady must be the friend of the very nice young man.

"I'm so sorry," she said with appealing friendliness, "that I took this seat—the gentleman who had it told me he only wanted one, and now I know he gave it up. I wish I could get it back to him. I believed him when he said he didn't want it."

Lady Sybel Hove looked frankly at Molly. "My brother would say that," she told her. "He has been looking forward to seeing this set for months, but he said he would edge in somewhere. Please don't feel so badly," she added swiftly for Molly looked so distressed that Sybel's heart smote her. "A man can always make his way in."

Half an hour later when the greatest of world tennis champions were hard at play on the courts, Lady Sybel and Molly were clutching each other in excitement and munching chocolates alternately.

When the exciting games were over and the thousands of good-natured people swarming to the various exit gates, Lady Sybel turned to Molly.

"You will come for a cup of tea, won't you? Jack will be delighted to have a chat with you. He and I are taking a long trip over to your country this autumn and you must tell us all about what to see."

Molly blushed shyly and accepted happily.

There was no slightest doubt as to Lord Hove's delight when he realized that Sybel had succeeded in what he hoped, without having asked her, she would do. She had become acquainted with the girl whose green eyes he had not been able to forget since they had gazed into his own.

The second meeting was even more wonderful than the first and no one looking at Molly and Lord Hove could think anything save that they were suddenly, desperately and most happily in love. Sybel saw it right away and wondered what color her bridesmaid's gown would be.

And when the great ocean liner nosed into the dock in New York a scant month later the photographers were all there to snap the arriving bridegroom and the bridesmaid as they met the bride.

Would Lord Hove, or would he not, kiss his bride-to-be?

That was what the newspaper men wondered.

All the Sunday editions would tell the answer—one way or the other.

Food of Ostriches

Ostriches are by nature herbivorous. On ostrich farms the birds are usually pastured on alfalfa in the summer and fed alfalfa hay, wheat bran, barley, oats and corn in the winter. Of course they require grit. Ostriches are notorious for their voracious appetite for stones, gravel, granite and pieces of bone. They have been known to swallow pocketbooks, spectacle cases, watches and other similar objects. As a rule they do not care for flesh of any kind unless real hungry. —Pathfinder Magazine.

PARADING COMMUNISTS ARE SCATTERED

CAVALRY CHARGE BREAKS THE RANKS IN METZ, REPORTED

PARADERS MEET CAVALRY ATTACK WITH A VOLLEY OF STONES

Paris, March 22.—(UP)—Parading communists in Metz were scattered by a cavalry charge and the menace of artillery, according to a dispatch received from that city today.

The communists met in a suburb of Metz Sunday and marched toward the center of the city behind a group of women and children. The police had forbidden the demonstration and when the marchers approached the city, after pushing through the first troops sent to halt them, the cavalry charged with drawn swords. The communists met the attack with a volley of paving stones. About a score were injured before the communists finally fell back, minus two red flags.

An artillery unit had been ordered out and had its guns in position when the communists retreated.

New Silk Print Designs for Spring and Summer

A stained-glass window inspired the designs of the newest silk print patterns which will be worn the coming spring and summer in the North. The new silks are covered thickly with extraordinary geometric designs in either polychrome pastel shades or in one and two-tone pastel effects. Squares, chevrons and triangles are piled on in inextricable confusion, but with a delightful blending of color.

The new printed silks, especially those designed for afternoon frocks, are being woven in very broad widths. The skirts of the afternoon dresses are frequently plain in the back, with a slight fullness in front. One width forms the skirt and the fullness is produced by placing the seam in the center of the front, with a plait on each side of the seam.

If one has a new and handsome hat-pin, it seems essential to have a hat with which to wear it. This is one of the things responsible for the popularity of the beret. Nothing is more suitable on which to pose a pin than a black velvet beret with a narrow slightly drooping brim.

WELL CALLED CITY OF ETERNAL YOUTH

Damascus Has Seen Many Empires Come and Go.

Damascus, said to be the most ancient inhabited city of the world, has just come through another ordeal of fire and sword, yet the work of rebuilding the devastated area is already well under way.

From the earliest times the city has been continually subjected to destruction and pillage. On countless occasions she has been sacked and her buildings leveled to the ground; yet thanks to her wonderful recuperative power she has always risen from the debris radiant and with a new lease of life.

Damascus is a city of eternal youth. She is the garden of the desert and her position is unique in the eastern world.

For thousands of years the waters of Damascus have given refreshment to millions of people parched with the heat of the Syrian sun, and her cool, shady gardens have never failed to provide their luscious fruits. She has seen the rise and fall of kings and kaliphs, of princely powers and dominating dynasties. She has survived them all.

The life of the city never changes. The caravans come and go. The same cosmopolitan multitude of Bedouins, Turks, Persians, Armenians, Kurds, Jews, Circassians and negroes from Arabia through her busy bazars, which are a perfect blaze of oriental color. The ceaseless hum of the narrow, covered streets, flanked by picturesque doorways and state courtyards, is everlasting, and the recent disturbances have only caused a temporary lull.

For a few days there was a pause in the feverish activity of this mighty market of the East, and the bazars were strangely silenced.

Now Damascus is returning to her own again, the Damascusenes are working hard to repair the damaged buildings, and the old atmosphere is gradually coming back. Every day the damage appears less, the chattering crowd of jostling Orientals grows greater, and the hammer of the brass beaters sounds louder. The gentle tinkle of the camel bell is heard once more, although the great caravans dare not venture on the open road.

From the surrounding hills Damascus appears a great white city embedded in a rich green garden. She is like a pearl in a setting of emeralds. Her hundreds of mosques and minarets vie with each other in simple splendor.

From this great oasis the camel caravans have century after century wended their slow and stately way out into the vast waterless spaces of the world, which on the map are merely yellow patches.

Damascus has seen the beginning of every existing power. She will probably see the end of them all.

Warns of Quakes

A remarkable instrument that translates the slightest tremors of the earth into sounds that issue from a loud speaker is the recent invention of a Japanese professor, Dr. Jun Shida of Kyoto university. It is designed to give warning of the approach of earthquakes, says Popular Science Monthly.

The possible usefulness of the invention lies in the assumption that most severe earthquakes are preceded by slight shocks. Thus an audible warning of slight tremors would give people time to leave homes and office buildings before the arrival of a destructive quake.

The invention consists of a pendulum, an electric coil and an amplifier. The pendulum is so delicately poised that it responds to the slightest vibration. When it is set in motion, electricity is generated in the coil, which actuates a sound-producing device. The sound is amplified and issues through a loud speaker.

So Easy

George L. Chapman, the Florida realtor, was talking in Jacksonville about a man named Snodgrass who had lost heavily in Florida land.

"A couple of crooked realtors got hold of him," said Mr. Chapman. "There are crooks, you know, even in our trade. And then Snodgrass was such a bonehead."

"These two crooked realtors were playing golf the other day over a new

"What shall we call this third hole, George?" said the first realtor. "Call it Snodgrass," said the second. "Why call it that?" "Oh, because it's so easy to do."

Wasted Sixpence

Michael Arlen, the Armenian novelist, said in New York the other day: "English novelists are hypocrites. You'd think, the way they talk, that every man, woman and child in England jumped religiously each morning before breakfast into an ice-cold bath. Brrr!"

"That's the way they talk. But in a London theatrical agent's office one day I overheard a dialogue between two pretty English girls."

"It's all right, Nell," said the first girl, as she came out from an inner office. "He's signin' on for his bathin' beauty show without requirin' ye to strip."

"Crikey!" said the second girl. "When I've just wasted sixpence on a barf!"

Simpler Names Wanted

Naturalists have started a movement to get simpler terminology for their branch of science. For instance they find themselves confronted with such names as "sclerodermotermes" and "neoeurhynchotethrips" which are examples of the use of prefixes with short rather well-known early genera. It is proposed to use codes which will be understood by all naturalists and shorten the prefixes greatly.

That's Different, of Course

There is nothing truer than that blood is thicker than water, and there is no greater evidence of this than when a man goes out with blood in his eye and a club in his hand to settle some boys who are raising a disturbance in the street and when he finds out that they are his own sons: "Oh, well, boys will be boys."—Liberty Press.

Controlling Climate

Climate is controlled to suit the most exacting needs in the work of the horticulturist and plant breeder in the greenhouses at the Wisconsin College of Agriculture. Many of the plants receive the light 24 hours a day, through the aid of large electric bulbs, kept burning all night. Temperature and humidity conditions are also scientifically controlled.

One of Tanlac's greatest blessings is the new life and vigor it brings to old folks. Every day men and women up in the seventies and eighties thank us for Tanlac's wondrous benefits.

Tanlac is a natural tonic, made from roots, barks and rare herbs. Harmless to man or child. It cleans the blood, stirs up the liver and puts digestive organs in working order.

PITCHING NECESSARY TO WIN A PENNANT

OF REAL VALUE IN THE MAJOR LEAGUE RACES

"GIVE ME SOME PITCHING AND WE'LL BE THERE," SAY
MANAGERS

McGRAW'S GIANTS LOOK GOOD,
HAVE STRENGTH IN PITCH-ING DEPARTMENT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, March 22.—Pitching has always been a major factor in the organization of a winning team, but it will have more than the usual importance in the major league pennant race this season.

Managers, asked in Florida for an estimate of their chance to win the pennant or be in the fight, had a stock reply, "Give me some pitching and we'll be there."

Strength in the pitching department, something unusual for the New York Giants, is what makes the chance of John McGraw's club look so good. McGraw had a good ball club last season, and it still has as much all around class as any other team in the league. It has not individual brilliants like Pie Traynor, Glen Wright or Kiki Cuyler, but it is a better balanced club than the Pirates and the pitching has improved to a marked degree.

In Jimmy Ring, Kent Greenfield, Fred Fitzsimmons, Art Nehf, Hugh McQuillan and Jock Scott, the Giants have a string of pitchers who look as good as any seen in the south.

The Brooklyn Robins, a club that always leans to strong pitching, have a great staff also in Dazzy
Vance, Burley Grimes, Jess Barnes, Doug McWeney and Jess Petty. Wilbert Robinson, president-manager of the club, figures that McWeney will be the sensation of the season. The Robins have very little to go with the pitching, however, and the very greatest of pitchers need an infield behind them.

The Cincinnati Reds in Adolfo
Luque, Pete Donohue and Evpa Rixey, have three great pitchers and there are some good reserves on the team. The Reds, however, lack the punch and Rixey has not reported to the club.

The Pittsburgh Pirates will have to get good pitching if they are to repeat as the National league winners. Bill McKechnie is hoping that Emil Yde, the best southpaw in baseball two years ago, will have a better season than he did last year.

Everything in the American league depends upon the pitching that Bucky Harris gets from his veteran Washington staff. Harris feels sure that Walter Johnson, Dutch Reuther, Stan Coveleskie and Joe Bush will deliver. He has plenty of confidence in Bush particularly. Harris knows that he has to get every game possible out of his pitchers and he is figuring so closely that he said recently that Johnson was not going to be asked to run out doubtful hits. He is not going to be used as a relief pitcher and will do bench duty in all the exhibition games.

Connie Mack has a great staff in Sammy Gray, Ed Rommel, Leftie
Groves, Slim Harris, Rube Walberg, Jack Quinn Baumgartner and others. If that bunch gets going or any part of them, the Athletics are almost sure to cop.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

After a campaign extending over several years, the government tax on sporting goods is being slowly removed along with important personal taxes.
The new revenue bill, passed a few weeks ago, was kind to golf players and trap and rifle marksmen.

Notice was sent out by counsel for the United States Golf association a few days ago that all clubs throughout the country need not include in their 1925 tax returns the amounts collected as green fees by individuals for the privilege of playing on courses of which they were not members.

The announcement was made as a result of a discovery that hundreds of thousands of dollars have been improperly and unnecessarily paid by golf clubs on the assumption that green fees were in the same class as dues and admission fees to places of amusement. These taxes, in spite of a campaign to have them exempted, still have to be included in the returns, however.

The excise tax on sporting arms (which does not include revolvers and pistols) and ammunition has been repealed and millions of sportsmen are rejoicing.

The repeal of the tax immediately means a reduction in the cost of shooting at the traps, on the rifle range and in the field.

In the neighborhood of $18,000,000 has been paid into the United States treasury in the last six years by those who sought pleasure in shooting at clay targets, on the rifle range and in the field and those who hunted game to provide food.

Through the war department several million dollars is spent annually in fostering rifle shooting in the Civilian Military Training Camps, the R. O.
T. C. and The National Matches and then congress made it extremely difficult for these embryo riflemen to continue the program the military folks laid out for them because of the excessive and needless tax. The tax has been most injurious to the development of shooting. It has caused many to retire from competition and has prevented many others from taking it up.

BASEBALL MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

SEVERAL TEAMS ENTERING THE CITY LEAGUE FOR THIRD SEASON

Representatives from a number of city teams are planning to attend the first meeting of the city baseball league tomorrow night at the Y. M.
C. A. The meeting starts at 7:30 P. M.

Matters of general interest regarding the twilight baseball playing will be discussed, and all interested in the matter are invited to attend.

It seems fairly certain that teams representing the B. A. C., the Y. M.
C. A., the A. O. U. W. and Northeast BRAINERD will enter the league. Any others wishing information regarding the league will have a hearing, with a view to securing the best class of baseball possible.

This will be the third season for the city league. It had its beginning in the summer of 1924, when five teams played a twelve game schedule, with the Seals, Tigers, Pirates, Y. M. C. A. and B. A. C. entered. Last summer four teams played a 24-game schedule, divided into two halves, and the teams playing were the Y. M. C. A., Workmen, Elks and B. A. C.

pions said.

Battle of the Nations
The battle of Leipzig (October 16, that fought it.

WRESTLING CARD SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY, MAR. 29

TONY MARCONY, OF MEXICO
CITY, MEETS "BULL" OLSON
OF DES MOINES

FOUR CONTESTS MAKE UP LIST OF EVENTS AT NEW PARK
THEATRE

Tony Marcony, of Mexico City, will meet "Bull" Olson of Des Moines in a middleweight wrestling match at the Park Theatre on Monday.

Tony Marcony

March 29th. Marcony weighs 170 pounds and Olson 175 pounds.

This is one of the matches on a fine card arranged for the evening, all matches to be wrestling contests.
Dan Brown, of Chicago, will take on Jack Gorman, of Omaha. These men are 155 pounds.

Fred Gilmore, of Brainerd, will meet Harry Bowman of Staples in one of the events of the evening. One other match is being arranged to complete the card.

Marcony has met some of the fastest men in the wrestling game in his weight. During the last four years he has been in Mexico, and while there defeated the Mexican champion, "Cactus" Pete Brown, in straight falls, the first fall after two hours and fifteen minutes, and the second after one hour and two minutes.

Among the others whom he has met are Ralph Parcutt of Des Moines, with whom he wrestled to a two hour draw, Joe Parelli of Chicago, ex middleweight champion, Gus Pappas of Wichita Falls, Texas, and John Kilonis of Norfolk, Virginia, all of whom he has defeated.

The present middle weight champion, Johnny Meyers, pinned him to the mat after one hour and fifty-eight minutes of wrestling.

Efficient Helper

A large company was to be photographed in a group, including the photographer, who sought the aid of a youth to press the bulb. Everything was ready at last and the operation was completed. When the group was dispersed it occurred to the photographer to ask the boy whether he had pressed the bulb exactly as instructed.
"Oh, yes," said the boy, "I practiced it half a dozen times before I took the group!"—Nebelspalter, Zurich.

He Passed

At an examination a boy, asked to state why a tiger is striped, wrote:
"It is striped because it makes it better for circus proprietors. If a tiger escapes from a circus it is easier to find him than if he had no stripes. He will not go far without someone noticing that he is not a horse or a dog, on account of his stripes, and calling up and asking the circus people if they have lost a tiger."

RECALL OF MAYOR CAIN IS DEMANDED

Signers Seeking His Removal According to Provisions of City Charter

1ST CASE IN LOCAL HISTORY

25 Per Cent of Last Election Vote Necessary, 830 Number Required Out of 3,317

Recall petitions are being circulated about the city asking the council to call an election for a successor to George A. Cain, mayor of the city. This action is being done in accordance with rules prescribed in the city charter for the removal of elective officers.

This is the first case of the kind in the city of Brainerd. The only instance known of the removal of a mayor was in 1876, when the city gave up its charter and reverted to a township form of government, thus automatically removing Thomas Lanihan, who had been elected mayor in 1875 at a special election upon the resignation of Mayor M. C. Russell. From the winter of 1876 to Nov. 18, 1881, a township government prevailed, but on that date the legislature re-established a city government, and on Jan. 10, 1882, city officials were elected, with B. F. Hartley as mayor, and the late Leon E. Lum was appointed city attorney.

Petition Names Removal Grounds

The petitions which were first put out on Saturday afternoon, read as follows:

"We, the undersigned, electors of the City of Brainerd, in accordance with Sections 20A to 20H inclusive of the charter for said City, hereby demand an election of a successor to George A. Cain, present mayor of said City.

"The grounds and reasons for such removal and election are sought, are as follows:

"The general unfitness and incompetency of said George A. Cain for said office.

"The appointment and designation of men as special police officers of said City who were totally unsuited and unqualified therefor, and who, with the approval of said George A. Cain, discharged their duties recklessly.

"The refusal of said George A. Cain to appoint a permanent chief of Police.

"The attempts of said George A. Cain to shield and protect a law violator employed as a 'stool pigeon,' so-called.

"The reckless discharge of what he conceives to be his duties as chief peace officer of said City resulting in injury to the person and property of another.

"His actions in assuming the office of a deputy sheriff of Crow Wing County and participating in the enforcement of law outside of the City of Brainerd, thus inviting the antagonism and ill-will of other sections of the County toward the citizens of said City and the severance of business relations with establishments thereof.

"The general dissatisfaction and disapproval by the citizens of said City of his conduct and policies as mayor."

830 Signers Needed

The petitions require a total of 830 qualified electors of the city of Brainerd, this being 25 percent of the total vote cast for mayor at the election on April 7, 1925, when Mayor Cain was elected to office. The total vote was 3,317.

The provisions of the city charter which provide for a recall election are, as stated in the petitions. Sections 20A to 20H, and read as follows:

"Section 20A—Any elective officer, whether elected by popular vote or appointed to fill a vacancy, may be removed at any time by the electors qualified to vote for a successor of such officer. The procedure to effect a removal of such elective municipal officer shall be as follows:

"Section 20B—A petition signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor of the officer sought to be removed equal in number to at least twenty-five per centum of the entire vote for all candidates for the office, the incumbent of which is sought to be removed, cast at the last preceding regular municipal election, demanding an election of a successor of the person sought to be removed, shall be addressed to the council and presented to the City Clerk; provided, that said petition shall contain a general statement of the ground for which the removal is sought.

"Section 20C—The signatures to the petition need not all be appended to one paper, but each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number. One of the signers to each such paper shall make oath before an officer competent to administer oaths, that the statements thereto made are true, and that each signature to the paper appended is the genuine signature of the person whose name purports to be thereunto subscribed. Within ten days from the date of said presentation of such petition, the city clerk shall examine and from the poll lists of the last regular municipal election ascertain whether or not said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, and if necessary, the council shall allow him extra help for that purpose, and he shall attach to said petition his certificate, the petition is shown to said examination. If, by the clerk's certificate, the petition is shown to be insufficient, it may be amended within ten days from the date of said certificate. The clerk shall, within ten days after such amendment, make like examination of the amended petition, and if his certificate shall show the same to be insufficient it shall be returned to the person presenting the same without prejudice, however, to the presentation and filing of a new petition to the same effect.

"Section 20D—If the petition shall be found to be sufficient the clerk shall transmit the same to the council without delay. If the petition shall be found to be sufficient the city council shall order, and fix the date for holding the said election, not less than thirty days nor more than forty days from the date of the clerk's certificate to the council that a sufficient petition is filed. The city council shall make, or cause to be made, publication of notice, and all arrangements for holding such election, provided, that in the published call for the election there shall be printed in not more than 200 words the reason for demanding the recall of the officer as set forth in the recall petition, and in not more than 200 words the officer may justify his course in office; and said election shall be conducted, returned, and the result thereof declared, in all respects, as are other city elections.

"Section 20E—The officer sought to be removed shall be deemed a candidate and, unless he resigns, his name shall be printed on the ballot without nomination. The nomination of other candidates shall be the same as the nomination of candidates for any regular city election for the office of which the incumbent is sought to be removed. The officer sought to be removed shall continue in office until the canvass of the returns of such recall election by the council, and if he fail at such election to receive the highest number of votes, he shall be deemed removed from office and the candidate at such election receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed his successor in office for the unexpired term thereof. Such successful candidate, except the recalled officer, shall qualify within ten days thereafter or the said office shall be deemed vacant. Said recalled officer shall yield said office on demand to his successor.

"Section 20F—No person who has been removed from office by recall, or has resigned from office after the filing of a recall petition, shall be appointed to any office under this Charter within one year after such removal or resignation.

"Section 20G—In so far as practical, all laws and provisions for holding regular or special elections in the city shall apply to such recall election and the preliminaries thereto, and where inapplicable or impractical the council shall by ordinance provide such other and further regulation consistent herewith as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Sections 20A, 20B, 20C, 20D, 20E, and 20F.

"Section 20H—Every amendment heretofore proposed shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its adoption."

The petitions were drawn up in the office of Ryan, Ryan, and Ryan, attorneys. C. A. Ryan stated, when asked regarding them, that individuals whose names he held confidential were back of the move. He also stated that individuals, not an organization, were circulating the petitions.

Ford

When You Trade Your Car—

Ford owners are continually being approached by automobile salesmen who wish to "accept" Fords as part payment on more expensive cars.

It is perfectly logical that automobile dealers everywhere should be eager to trade with Ford owners. The Ford is the most popular automobile in the world. No other used car is so easy to sell as a used Ford—because everyone has confidence in Ford quality. And it is not expensive to re-condition, since Ford replacement parts are lowest in price.

Most automobiles carry greater discounts to dealers than the Ford—another reason why other dealers may offer the Ford owner a larger trade-in allowance.

But when you come to buy a new car, bear these facts in mind:

The amount of the trade-in allowance you can get is not the most important thing for you to consider. The big thing is the difference you have to pay. And remember, that the higher priced car will not be so easy to dispose of when you come to trade it in.

If you wish to trade your Ford for a new automobile, stick to the car that you know to be dependable, useful and economical. Go to your Ford dealer!

He will give you a fair and liberal allowance for your present Ford and will gladly arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

When the deal is over, and you have your new and improved Ford, you will have the satisfaction of knowing positively that you took advantage of the greatest automobile value the world has ever seen—and saved a lot of money, too.

HURRIED LIQUIDATION OF STOCKS

New York, March 22.—(UP)—Hurried liquidation which marked the final stages of last week's trading was less in evidence today. Selling went ahead in many sections of the list, resulting in new lows in the morning dealings in Hudson Motor, General Electric and other speculative interests. But these declines failed to locate important holdings and through the remainder of the day the trading showed a noticeable disposition to decrease in volume on price recessions. This indication that the great part of the weak lines overhanging the market had not been cleaned up was followed by a partial recovery in the general list which brought about rebounds of 1 to 10 points in stocks like General Electric, American Can, Steel, Hudson, General Motors and other industrial leaders.

However, the rally was checked in the late afternoon by an advance of call money to five points, the stiffest charge since March 2.

The market closed irregular.

Where Orchids Are Pests

Orchids, so prized by the flower connoisseur, and in almost all sections of the United States comparatively expensive, are a little short of costly pests in some parts of Porto Rico. In this island there are two species that have proved destructive to the citrus groves, growing like weeds and entangling their enormous roots over the branches of the citrus trees with a strangulation effect.

Chivalry Never Dead

Some say that the age of chivalry is past, that the spirit of romance is dead. The age of chivalry is never past so long as there is a wrong unredressed on earth.—Kingsley.

Piles Disappear

No Cutting or Salves Needed

External treatments seldom cure piles. Nor do surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation.

The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby. The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied.

Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at H. P. Dunn's and Johnson's Pharmacy, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.

Sensational Story of Paris New Mae Murray Vehicle

Glittering gowns, daring and spectacular dances, cafes, the froth and gaiety of Paris—these are the embellishments in which Mae Murray is seen in an intensely dramatic role in her latest picture, "The Masked Bride," her first picture since "The Merry Widow." The new picture is now playing at the Lyceum theatre.

It is a sensational story of a Paris underworld plot enmeshing Miss Murray, in the role of a French dancer fighting to save her lovers' happiness. Christy Cabanne directed it on a lavish scale at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.
